SAVE THE DATE

Through Mission Aasha, we aim to build robust partnerships, garner support from the Nepali diaspora, and foster inclusive growth in rural communities of Nepal. This is a unique opportunity for Daayitwa, the Nepali community in the U.S., and subnational governments in Nepal to come together for a national cause. Our initiative aims to empower rural youth and women to accelerate entrepreneurship and employment opportunities in rural Nepal.

Governance Lab

Understanding the WEFE Nexus & GESI: A Collaborative Workshop

Kathmandu Forestry College in collaboration with Governance Lab, GREAT International, CGIAR, Biodiversity International/CIAT, with the support of the International Water Management Institute (IWMI) organized "Understanding the WEFE Nexus & GESI: A Collaborative Workshop". This workshop empowered mid-career leaders with dialogues on GESI-responsive development.

Governance Lab facilitated discussions on collaboration and integration of Water-Energy-Food-Ecosystem (WEFE) Nexus principles, focusing on resource security, efficiency, and institutional synergy. The event sparked meaningful dialogues and paved the way for inclusive and sustainable solutions.

Final evaluation of SALE project

The Governance Lab has successfully completed the Final evaluation of the South Asia Leadership in Entrepreneurship (SALE) project. Implemented by the ILO in cooperation with tripartite constituents and partners, SALE aims to foster entrepreneurship in the region. Acting as a consultant for Nepal, the Governance Lab collaborated with a consultant from Sri Lanka and a team leader to support the final evaluation of SALE. The final evaluation of the SALE project has been completed.

Updates from 'Understanding Political Selection in Nepal' Project

To comprehend the forces impeding greater representation of women in politics and their upward political mobility, we are gearing up to

This event would be crucial for us to identify structural constraints and socialized attributes that put limit on women's political participation and conduct Focused Group Discussions (FGDs) among local level women representatives and politicians in collaboration with the National Association of Rural Municipalities in Nepal (NARMIN). The event which is going to be held in Bharatpur, Chitwan will be attended by representatives from more than 15 municipalities and rural municipalities.

inform us about designing effective intervention strategy which could help break the barriers towards greater political mobility of women in Nepal.

Nepal Leadership Academy - Leading with Empathy

Nepal Leadership Academy, a capacity partner for the Daayitwa Nepal Public Policy Fellowship (DNPPF), has been contributing to the program's Leading Innovation Policy course through leadership training sessions. The empathize module of the Leadership course this month focused on how to be empathetic leaders and leading with empathy.

Podspective by Daayitwa Abhiyaan

This episode of Podspective by Daayitwa Abhiyaan delves into the complex intersections of law, politics, and development in Nepal, featuring insights from Hon. Kalyan Shrestha, former Chief Justice of the Supreme Court and Commissioner at the International Commission of Jurists (ICJ). Join us as we explore the challenges of judicial decision-making, the critical need for constitutional reforms, and the redefinition of leadership essential for fostering productive development within Nepal.
